

Helping all children to learn

NOW ONLINE

Are you interested in how emotional difficulties can block a child or young person's capacity to learn? Do you wonder how to support them?

'Life changing training that enlightens practitioners with psychoanalytic understanding that is grounded in the reality of the challenges we face in meeting the social, emotional and mental health needs in education today.'

Helping all children to learn

www.caspari.org.uk

Caspari Certificate in Therapeutic Teaching

£2,950

Applicants

This course is suitable for teachers, educational psychologists, learning mentors, nurture group practitioners and others working with children. Application is by interview.

One Year Part-time Course Online Learning

Thursday evenings: 6:20-9pm (term time)

Two Saturdays over the course of the year

Course Outline

The basis of the work is in psychoanalytic and attachment theories and the application of these ideas in an educational context.

Modules include:

Theoretical concepts in educational psychotherapy; Attachment Theory and the practice of therapeutic teaching; Work Discussion – where theory and practice meet.

Course Qualification

Caspari Certificate in Therapeutic Teaching

30 Credits at FHEQ Level 7

N.B. This course can also be converted into the first year of the Advanced Diploma in Educational Psychotherapy.

To apply or for any more information please contact: lynsey@caspari.org.uk

Helping all children to learn

www.caspari.org.uk